We at Rock Shox know how to satisfy our customers because we have to satisfy ourselves first, and we're a whole lot pickier than you because our name's on the darn things. We've spent most of our adult lives working on our forks just so you wouldn't ride around like a total goof. We still generate our ideas the ol' fashioned way - by thinking 'em up! And we test and test and test our forks until our testers cry "Uncle!" Try our shocks, get wowed, then ride down to your nearest dealer, slip him a few greenbacks and ride off into the sunset. Know what? We bet you'll do that a heckuva lot smoother than the Lone Ranger ever did. Thank You.
